

Achilles

Pre-qualified supplier for compliant utilities procurement

Value for Utilities buyers

- Reduces supplier onboarding time
- Pre-validated compliance and due diligence
- Trusted by regulated utilities organisations

About this procurement route

Achilles is a pre-qualification and risk management platform that supports utilities organisations in building compliant, resilient supply chains with suppliers.

How to use

- Join and locate Chevin within the Achilles network
- Use our validated compliance and due diligence information to support your processes
- Procure via internal procurement process

The Chevin logo consists of the word "chevin" in white lowercase letters inside a red chevron shape pointing to the right.

- Registered across all available regions
- Chevin registration valid through to April 2027